

I have made the choice to pay for XM Service which includes satellite radio and traffic/weather channels. it would be wrong for you to try and stop this service or try to change what is available. I think in this day and age there are more important things for you to worry about then what or how I listen to the radio!